Introduction to Acts

The author of the Acts of the Apostles is the same author of the Gospel of Luke. Both books are addressed to Theophilus, and the latter (Acts) refers to the former (Luke). Luke the Physician was the author of Luke-Acts.

As it is expected, the book of Acts has a similar literary style as the Gospel of Luke because it is the second volume of Luke's account.

Acts reveals a progression of the gospel that divides the book into six parts. At the end of each section is a summary statement (6:7, 9:31, 12:24, 16:5, 19:20, 28:30-31). The progression begins in Jerusalem extends to Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, Syria and Cyprus, Pisidia, Pamphylia, Lycaonia, and Cilicia, Asia and Greece and finally Rome.
