

May 29, 2016 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

The Kingdom's King Daniel 4:1-37

We must stop acting like "kings" as we honor the KING

1. We sometimes act like a "king"

We proclaim what is true without believing it (vs. 1-9)

We possess knowledge without acting on it (vs. 19-27)

2. We sometimes forget there is a King

When we allow a gap in time with God (vs. 28-29)

When we appropriate the credit (vs. 30)

When we assume it will not end (vs. 31-32)

3. We should acknowledge there is one KING

By receiving His correction (vs. 33)

By renouncing self congratulation (vs. 34)

By revering Him as God (vs. 35)

By rejoicing in restoration (vs. 36-37)

Conclusion: Are you ready to renounce your throne?

May 29, 2016 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

The Kingdom's King Daniel 4:1-37

We must stop acting like "kings" as we honor the KING

1. We sometimes act like a "king"

We proclaim what is true without believing it (vs. 1-9)

We possess knowledge without acting on it (vs. 19-27)

2. We sometimes forget there is a King

When we allow a gap in time with God (vs. 28-29)

When we appropriate the credit (vs. 30)

When we assume it will not end (vs. 31-32)

3. We should acknowledge there is one KING

By receiving His correction (vs. 33)

By renouncing self congratulation (vs. 34)

By revering Him as God (vs. 35)

By rejoicing in restoration (vs. 36-37)

Conclusion: Are you ready to renounce your throne?