Jephthah “sacrifices” his daughter

Judges 11:30-40

The Strange Factor:

Jephthah, the eighth judge of Israel, vows to sacrifice to God in exchange for victory in battle and ends up sacrificing his only daughter

The Underlying Meaning:

- Jephthah the outcast (11:1-2)
- Jephthah the mercenary (11:3-4)
- Jephthah the deliverer (11:5-11)
- Jephthah the diplomat/lawyer (11:12-28)
- Jephthah the warrior (11:29-33)

Clues to the vow

- Two separate vows? (vs. 31)
- Human sacrifice or celibacy? (vs. 36-40)

The Lessons for Us:

- We can be influenced by our environment- be careful!
- We can sin with our mouths- be quiet!
- We can hurt others with our actions- be gentle!
